

Read Your Bible

PASTOR KENT HACKATHORN

“For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, And do not return there without watering the earth And making it produce and sprout, And providing seed to the sower and bread to the eater;

So will My word be which goes out of My mouth; It will not return to Me empty, Without accomplishing what I desire, And without succeeding in the purpose for which I sent it.”

ISAIAH 55:10-11

A few weeks ago, my grandson was at the house, and it began to rain. His first response was to ask if he could go out and ride his scooter in the rain. I watched out the window as he rode around and around the cul-de-sac with a smile on his face and joy in his heart.

Our passage today says that should be our same reaction to God’s word. Just as the rain comes down from heaven to water the earth, produce the seed and provide bread for us to eat, in the same way, God’s word provides what we need and accomplishes all God desires in our lives.

God’s word promises compassion and pardon from sin: the gift of life. If we would seek Him, He will be found. God’s word is profitable, trustworthy, and dependable. Like the rain was to my grandson, God’s word will bring you great joy, as well, if you would just seek it each day.

- What adjustments need to be made in your daily schedule to prioritize God’s Word?
- Would you share with a friend today a blessing you received from God’s Word?