

40 Days of Prayer & Devotion to Easter

Day 25

Have you ever lost something and kept looking and looking for it but couldn't find it anywhere? In your search, you may have become frustrated and suddenly realized the thing you have been looking for was in your hand the entire time. It was never really lost. In fact, it was the furthest thing from being lost. It might have been in the most obvious place as it was in your hand the entire time. However, at that moment, whether it was because of busyness or the chaos of life, you had forgotten about it and thought it was missing.

In life, it is so easy to forget something or miss out on something. Here in John 15:12, we find Jesus reminding us to love others. John 15:12 says. "This is my commandment: Love each other in the same way I have loved you."

I think Jesus is reminding us again and again to do this because it is so easy to get caught up and miss out on something that is so obvious and is often commanded in scripture.

How are you doing at loving others? We, as followers of Christ, must never forget to remember to love others.

– Pastor Sam Sievers

"This is my commandment:
Love each other in the same way I have loved you."

– John 15:12
