

40 Days of Prayer & Devotion to Easter

Day 27

Today, let's delve into the inspired words of Romans 12:11, where the apostle Paul urges us: "Do not be slothful in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord."

In this succinct verse, Paul encapsulates the essence of a vibrant and purposeful Christian life – an existence marked by an unwavering passion for serving our Lord and Savior. The call is clear: be fervent, be zealous, and keep the fire of your spiritual dedication burning brightly.

To serve the Lord fervently is to go beyond mere obligation; it is a heartfelt response to the grace we have received. It's about approaching each day with an enthusiasm that stems from a deep love for God and an understanding of the immeasurable blessings He bestows upon us.

As we navigate the challenges of life, let us remember that our service to the Lord is not a duty to be discharged mechanically, but a joyous privilege to be embraced with enthusiasm. Whether in our workplaces, homes or communities, may our actions be infused with a fervent desire to glorify God.

In times of weariness or discouragement, let Romans 12:11 be our rallying cry – a reminder to rekindle the flames of our spiritual fervor and approach each task with a heart ablaze for the Lord.

May our lives be living testimonies of passionate service, reflecting the love and devotion we have for our Heavenly Father.

In short, today, let's LIVEOUTWARD.

– Pastor Brian Griffin

Do not be slothful
in zeal, be fervent in spirit, serve the Lord.

– Romans 12:11

