

40 Days of Prayer & Devotion to Easter

Day 31

Our God is a powerful God, and He is capable of doing some amazing things! Sharing the story of these things that He has done for us is one of the most useful tools we have in sharing the Good News of Christ. But if we want to share what He has done, we first must remember what He has done. This calls us to focus in on what God is doing in our lives. If we are not walking with Him daily, we can become completely oblivious to what He is doing. But when we walk with Him daily and remember the things that He has done, we will see Him continue to work in our lives. We will see the power of God at work on our behalf. We can trust that He loves us and cares for us because of what He has done. From this trust, we can walk in the fear of the Lord. This is our hope. This is our story.

As we strive to serve Him faithfully and #liveoutward, who is one person you can share your story with? Someone you can pull aside and say, "God has done some really cool things in my life recently. Can I tell you about it?" Your story has power. Your story has hope.

Who are you going to share it with?
