CHALLENGE: Speak words of encouragement to someone who needs it

MONTHLY CHALLENGE:

Each week in March, be intentional about speaking words of encouragement to someone who needs it. Whether in person or over a phone call, take a moment to lift them up with kindness and compassion. Pray that God would open your eyes to see those who are hurting, give you the right words at the right time, and create meaningful opportunities to reflect His love through encouragement to those who don't have a relationship with God.

INSPIRATION:

- Encouragement reflects God's love. Just as God uplifts and strengthens us, we have the opportunity to do the same for others.
- It doesn't have to be deep. A sincere “I appreciate you” or “I see your hard work” can mean the world to someone.
- Jesus spoke life. Following His example means using our words to build up, not tear down.
- You may never know the impact. Someone might be struggling silently, and your words could be exactly what they need.
- Timely words can be a divine appointment. Ask God to guide you to the right people and the right moments.

INSPIRATION

- Be active in prayer - Ask God to bring people to mind who need encouragement.
- Make a list - Write down five people you want to intentionally encourage this month.
- Speak up in the moment - If you think something kind, say it. Don't hold back!
- Encourage someone publicly - Whether in a meeting, group setting, or social media post, recognize someone's impact. Be brave as well as encouraging!
- Follow up - If someone is going through a hard time, check back in and remind them they're not alone. Make encouragement a habit and check in often!

Use the space in the calendar to notate to whom and when you encouraged that week. You can use this as an accountability tool for yourself as well as a way to look back on your year of #LiveOutward. If you need help learning how to share your faith in Jesus, text SHARE to 89449.
